

Community Outreach Coordinator: This individual will seek, foster, and strengthen relationships with the community to promote Everlasting Hope. They will perform supportive services for the basic and intensive needs of a newly organized nonprofit organization. This position is responsible for overseeing their community events, volunteer coordination, external affairs, and development within their community. We are open to having this be two people from each community. These tasks will have great support from board members and be done as a team. This position includes but is not limited to 1) generating ideas, preparing, requesting and collecting event details and 2) facilitating their community efforts to bring awareness of infertility and Everlasting Hope. This is a volunteer position. Please submit letter of interest beatndinfertility@gmail.com

We have openings in the following communities for this position:

Fargo

Bismarck

Grand Forks

Minot

Williston

Dickinson

Jamestown