

PREVENTING VIOLENCE. PROMOTING SAFETY. BUILDING HOPE.

Transitional Housing Advocate

JOB ADVERTISEMENT

CVIC is currently accepting applications for a Transitional Housing Advocate. We are seeking an individual with strong time management and communication skills as well as the ability to prioritize and meet deadlines. The ideal candidate should have an understanding of poverty/barriers and knowledge about the housing first model and substance use disorders. A strong candidate will also demonstrate empathy, compassion, resiliency, and self-awareness while maintaining personal boundaries with clients.

In order to be considered for this position, a CVIC employment application, cover letter and resume must be submitted to the Director of Human Resources.

Visit our career page at <https://cviconline.org/about-us/careers/> to view the full job description including salary, benefits, minimum qualifications, and application instructions.

Be life changing. Apply today.